

Celebration of 70th Independence Day in Krishna Engineering College, Bhilai

Krishna Engineering College, Bhilai, celebrated the 70th Independence Day of the country in a solemn manner befitting the occasion. The celebrations started with unfurling of the National Flag by Shri Pramod Kumar Tripathi, Secretary, Krishna Education Society. This was followed by a sonorous rendering of the National Anthem which found reverberations throughout the campus. Speaking on the occasion, Dr. P. K. Ghosh, Principal KEC-Bhilai, recalled the selfless sacrifices of the freedom fighters in giving us an independent nation to live and grow in. He urged the future engineers to continue the legacy of this great nation and make their contributions towards the development of the society and the nation at large. In his address, Shri Pramod Kumar Tripathi reminded everybody of the duties that every individual has towards the growth of the country. He reiterated the pledge of KEC to provide quality engineers to the Nation in order to take the country to newer heights. The day was marked by the presentation of an entertaining array of cultural programmes by the students. The atmosphere was sombre yet euphoric bringing to the fore the patriotic fervour of the students. Haripriya Sahu, Anjali Sahu, Sarbanshu Sanyal, Siddhant Sahare, Neeraj Kumar Rawte and Akash Kumar Ratre spoke on various aspects of independence and what it entails for the present generation. The day also saw soulful rendition of patriotic songs by Ronald David, Arvind Kumar, Piyush Kumar, Pankaj Kumar Yadav, Chandrakant Sahu, Anjali Sahu and Haripriya Sahu. The programme was conducted by Siddhant Sahare and Piyush Kumar.
